

Beautiful Churches You Shouldn't Miss During a Biblical Tour of Israel

Israel has long been known as the land of the Bible which is especially famous for beautiful churches throughout Israel. When planning your next trip to Israel, don't miss a chance to visit many of the beautiful churches. Learn about their history and appreciate the various architectural styles while connecting with your faith.

Here are some amazing churches:

St. James Cathedral

Located in Jerusalem, it is one of the only intact churches from Israel's crusader era, which has beautiful mosaics and more than 130 one-of-a-kind religious paintings.

St. George Monastery

Built in some of the harshest of conditions in the rock walls of the Wadi Qelt desert. It was built by Byzantine monks in the 4th century AD.

Church of the Multiplication

This church is located on the shores of the Sea of Galilee in Tabgha and is the traditional site of the feeding of the 5,000. The building is decorated with shiny white stones from the Tayibe quarries.

St. Gabriel's Church

St. Gabriel's church, also known as the Greek Orthodox Church of the Annunciation, is located in downtown Nazareth. It is colorfully decorated in a modern architectural style. The interior is decorated with impressive murals and stained-glass windows.

Church of all Nations

The Church of All Nations is located on the Mount of Olives in Jerusalem. The modern church stands out from the other churches on the Mount of Olives thanks to the impressive mosaic that adorns the facade.

These are just a few out of many other impressive churches in Israel. Get in touch with Coral Tours to visit more beautiful churches and make the most memorable journey to the Holy Land.
